

International Student Resources

The Office of Civil Rights and Title IX encourages reports of any experiences related to harassment or discrimination (based on a protected class - see back), or sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

Examples of what to report:

- Being denied membership to a student organization because of a language barrier, nationality, etc.
- Someone using a nickname or a more “American” name instead of the name preferred.
- Your professor isn’t allowing you to change a test scheduled during a religious observance.
- Someone asking you where you are from repeatedly.
- Assuming you don’t understand a topic because you’re from another country.

Resources:

- International Student Support Services - <https://iss.ku.edu/>
- Rock Chalk Central - <https://rockchalkcentral.ku.edu/>

For additional resources, please reach out to the Office of Civil Rights & Title IX.

International Student Resources

The Office of Civil Rights and Title IX encourages reports of any experiences related to harassment or discrimination (based on a protected class - see back), or sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

Examples of what to report:

- Being denied membership to a student organization because of a language barrier, nationality, etc.
- Someone using a nickname or a more “American” name instead of the name preferred.
- Your professor isn’t allowing you to change a test scheduled during a religious observance.
- Someone asking you where you are from repeatedly.
- Assuming you don’t understand a topic because you’re from another country.

Resources:

- International Student Support Services - <https://iss.ku.edu/>
- Rock Chalk Central - <https://rockchalkcentral.ku.edu/>

For additional resources, please reach out to the Office of Civil Rights & Title IX.

International Student Resources

The Office of Civil Rights and Title IX encourages reports of any experiences related to harassment or discrimination (based on a protected class - see back), or sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

Examples of what to report:

- Being denied membership to a student organization because of a language barrier, nationality, etc.
- Someone using a nickname or a more “American” name instead of the name preferred.
- Your professor isn’t allowing you to change a test scheduled during a religious observance.
- Someone asking you where you are from repeatedly.
- Assuming you don’t understand a topic because you’re from another country.

Resources:

- International Student Support Services - <https://iss.ku.edu/>
- Rock Chalk Central - <https://rockchalkcentral.ku.edu/>

For additional resources, please reach out to the Office of Civil Rights & Title IX.

KU has 16 protected classes: race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, age, ancestry, disability, status as a veteran, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, gender identity, gender expression, and genetic information.

KU has 16 protected classes: race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, age, ancestry, disability, status as a veteran, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, gender identity, gender expression, and genetic information.

KU has 16 protected classes: race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, age, ancestry, disability, status as a veteran, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, gender identity, gender expression, and genetic information.

Overview of what occurs after we receive a report:

- Outreach to harmed party.
- Intake conversation (to learn options and resources).
- Support measures (counseling referrals, mutual no contact orders, class accommodations, educational conversations, and more).
- Formal and informal options for resolution.

To request a training, email:
civilrights@ku.edu or
ashwilson@ku.edu.

To make a report, follow this link:

Overview of what occurs after we receive a report:

- Outreach to harmed party.
- Intake conversation (to learn options and resources).
- Support measures (counseling referrals, mutual no contact orders, class accommodations, educational conversations, and more).
- Formal and informal options for resolution.

To request a training, email:
civilrights@ku.edu or
ashwilson@ku.edu.

To make a report, follow this link:

Overview of what occurs after we receive a report:

- Outreach to harmed party.
- Intake conversation (to learn options and resources).
- Support measures (counseling referrals, mutual no contact orders, class accommodations, educational conversations, and more).
- Formal and informal options for resolution.

To request a training, email:
civilrights@ku.edu or
ashwilson@ku.edu.

To make a report, follow this link:

